

CHRISTINE ORTIZ (House Manager/Food Coordinator) An award-winning interior designer with a strong background in construction and project management and graduate of the prestigious New York School of Interior Design, Christine has an unyielding passion for transforming spaces into extraordinary living experiences. Christine's expertise extends far beyond aesthetics, as she adeptly guides the entire project from inception to fruition.
<https://www.ohdesignsinteriors.com/>

Having worked with Katie Schmidt Feder at Garrison Art Center, Christine came about to help with this production of Movable Musical Feast where her project management and customer service skills are put to use!